President's Corner

What a relief that April 15th has come and gone. I was wearing my "I Gave to the IRS" button all day. I am so thankful that my Accountant takes care of all that tax garbage. The weather is the only bad thing that will haunt us now.

How does light effect business? Is your office poorly illuminated? Many studies have proven that the amount and color of light has a major impact on your mental capacity as well as productivity. Higher lighting levels stimulate your central nervous system to keep you more alert and awake. By increasing the quality of light, production could increase as much as 20%.
